

Matthew Fernandez

fernandezmatthewkyle@gmail.com

(954) 668-8778

Gainesville, FL

Education

- Graduated from Fort Lauderdale High School, May 2018
 - Associate of Arts, Engineering, Santa Fe College, December 2020, GPA – 3.93
 - Pursuing Bachelor of Science, Computer Engineering, Univ. of Florida, GPA - 3.71
-

Relevant Coursework

- Programming Fundamentals + Data Structures and Algorithms
 - Introduction to Digital Arts and Sciences
 - Theory and Practice of Multimedia Production
 - Digital Logic
 - Software Engineering
-

Skills

- Lifelong familiarity with Windows and Mac operated computers.
 - 3D Modeling experience using both Maya and Blender.
 - Certification with the CAD software SolidWorks.
 - Proficiency in programming with the C-Family of Languages, as well as Java.
 - Experience building Graphical User Interfaces, using dedicated programming software such as Processing (Java), and external libraries such as SFML (C++).
 - Ability to collaborate with and manage team projects.
 - Experience developing games in Unreal Engine and Unity.
-

Experience

- Student Journalist

I wrote for the Weekly Reader newspaper throughout the 4th grade. During this time, I went to Super Bowl XVIV as a member of the press where I interviewed players and reported on the game.

- Tutor

Teaching being a passion of mine, I have participated in helping family and friends with subjects I care about, free of charge, in a more personal way than formal teaching had been able to provide them.